Employee benefits

Benefits

We review our benefits from time to time to ensure we are rewarding our employees the best way we can.

Pension: We offer our staff a defined contribution pension scheme contracted into the State Second Pension (S2P) which is non-contributory or contributory.

Life Assurance: We provide you with free life assurance cover of two times pensionable salary. Enhanced cover is provided if you decide to join the pension scheme.

Private Health Care: You may choose to join our private medical insurance.

Medical Examinations: You will be required to have an eye examination at the start of your employment and biannually after that.

You may also decide to have a flu injection annually. These are currently paid for by Bible Society.

Childcare Allowance: Our childcare allowance is a subsidy towards the cost of childcare, for a child under school age, being cared for by a legally-registered carer or nursery.

Family-friendly Policies: Maternity, paternity, adoption and parental leave follow statutory guidelines.

Staff Sales: As a valued member of staff, you can purchase our published materials, DVDs and software products for personal use at a discounted rate of 25 per cent.

Car Parking: Car parking is currently free at our premises.

Holidays: Holiday entitlement, for all employees, start at 23 days per year, It increases to a maximum 26 days after four years (pro rata for part-time staff). Employees are entitled to paid bank/public holidays (pro rata for part-time staff).

Sickness Scheme: There is an occupational sick pay scheme in operation for all our employees which includes Statutory Sick Pay (SSP).

Training and Development: We are committed to the training and development of all staff. We encourage employees to develop their skills and potential in line with the business needs.

Subscriptions: Where there is a business need, the subscriptions to professional bodies are paid for by Bible Society.

Worship: We hope you would choose, on occasions, to attend a variety of worship services held daily and monthly.
