

Be a voice for Bible poverty...by becoming a Local Rep

What's a Local Rep?

A Local Rep is someone who speaks at churches, Action Groups and other meetings in their area to tell them about the scandal of Bible poverty around the world. They inspire, motivate and equip their audience to become active in the fight against Bible poverty.

What could I be doing?

You could help others grasp the scandal of Bible poverty around the world by:

- speaking at churches (this can include preaching on a Sunday, taking the whole service and mid-week church meetings), Action Groups and other opportunities which may arise (for example school assemblies)
- being the key point of contact for Action Groups and Church Reps in your area, visiting them to provide encouragement, support and information. We'll provide you with lists of people to get in touch with
- manning stands and helping at festivals, exhibitions and other local events (including helping to organise local Vision Events)
- building relationships with churches that already support Bible Society and you'll develop new links with those who don't yet know about the scandal of Bible poverty in our world
- encouraging people to give to Bible Society, for example through Bible a Month and legacies

How much time is involved?

You'll spend time each month speaking and contacting Action Groups and Church Reps. However, the more time you have available, the more you will be able to achieve.

What could I gain from being a Local Rep?

You'll:

- use skills and experience directly in work that builds God's kingdom
- have the satisfaction of knowing that your efforts are changing lives around the world
- be equipped with resources and bi-monthly newsletters
- have the opportunity to participate in Vision Visits and national and regional volunteer training events twice a year to receive training and update you on the current work of Bible Society

Will I have support?

There's help from Bible Society staff. Whenever you need to we can be contacted by email or phone.

Travelling expenses are covered.

There will also be plenty of people praying for you!

And you'll be closer to what God is doing in the world.

Contact volunteers@biblesociety.org.uk or telephone 01793 418222 for further details