Prayers

We recently visited Malawi and gathered prayers from our colleagues as well as the people they minister to. Please join us in upholding the country and particularly our work with children in your prayers.

And Jesus came and said to them, 'All authority in heaven and on earth has been given to me. Go therefore and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, teaching them to observe all that I have commanded you.

And behold, I am with you always, to the end of the age.'

Matthew 28.18–20 (ESV)

This prayer request comes from Clapperton Mayuni, General Secretary of the Bible Society in Malawi:

'Please pray for a great impact in the work we are doing, because unless lives are changing, it's not worth doing.'

Please join me in praying that many young people will live the word, and we'll see children understanding the stories.

This prayer request comes from Patrick Lifa, uncle to Esther, an orphan, who lives with him and his family, and who received a Bible:

'God provides for us even in these difficult circumstances.'

'Please pray that God will continue to meet our daily needs.'

This prayer request comes from Tadala Mphatso, aged 10, who lives in Manase township:

'Please pray that God protects my family and helps me in school. I pray for a better future, with a good career and a good family.'

'Please pray that God keeps blessing us with Bibles; there are many children who don't know God and who need these Bibles so they can get to know him.'

Thank you for praying with us, we deeply value your intercessions on our behalf as we seek to share God's word at home and around the world.

Please pray for the country of Malawi:

Elections in Malawi have been held every five years since 1994 and the last one was held in May 2014.

'For the people as they are likely to vote on leadership in 2019.'

'That elections will be held peacefully.'

'For the politicians to discharge their responsibility in a God-fearing way.'

First of all, then, I urge that petitions, prayers, requests, and thanksgivings be offered to God for all people; for kings and all others who are in authority, that we may live a quiet and peaceful life with all reverence towards God and with proper conduct.

1 Timothy 2.1-2 (GNB)
