

Be part of our Support Team

What's the Support Team?

The Support team are a wonderful group of people who come into our office in Swindon, Wiltshire, to work alongside the staff team. The Support team tend to be organisers with a keen attention to detail, and we can't tell you what a great help they are.

It's lovely for staff to have volunteers in the office, because we get to hear what inspires you about the mission and we meet some new people!

What would I be doing?

- Giving time to join our post-opening team who sort the lovely letters people send to us
- Organising and sorting our resources, including magazines, leaflets and fundraising packs
- Basic computer work for which we give full training and ongoing support
- Helping guests who visit our offices
- Possibly answering the telephone and speaking with other supporters
- Working alongside our Fundraising, Marketing, Supporter Services, Publishing and Digital teams with their current projects
- Anything else where we might need an extra pair of willing hands.

How much of my time is involved?

- As much as you want to give. Time is precious so we make charity volunteering for Bible Society convenient for you, so that you can enjoy every moment.
- The Support team typically come in for a day a week, but we're open to any suggestions.

What's in it for me?

By joining the team of Bible Society volunteers, you'll be using your skills and experience to offer the Bible to the world. And that's pretty significant, isn't it? You'll be part of a great team, and we hope you'll enjoy working alongside people who share this mission.

How can I help?
