

Name of Organisation or Church: _____

1. As a Partner Church of the Navigating Trauma programme, we agree to:

- 1.1. Fulfil all relevant safeguarding requirements of the Navigating Trauma Programme Safeguarding Policy, and our own safeguarding policies and procedures
- 1.2. Treat in good faith and safeguard all participants of the programme, regardless of their faith, church tradition, race, gender, age, or sexual orientation
- 1.3. Have appropriate Public Liability Insurance cover up to £10m
- 1.4. Support facilitators to ensure support groups are conducted in a way that minimises the risk and vulnerability of participants and facilitators to harm, including, but not limited to, ensuring facilitators obtain a DBS check
- 1.5. Fully support our facilitators in the delivery of support groups (c.f. Safeguarding Agreement)

2. The Partner Church confirms that:

- 2.1. It has understood the basis of the partnership as outlined above and in the Facilitator Code of Conduct and Navigating Trauma Safeguarding Policy, and should the Partner Church's ability to deliver any of the above clauses change, it shall notify Bible Society without delay, setting out how and why the partnership has changed and the impact of such changes
- 2.2. It will use the appropriate branding in any promotional materials created

- 3.1. To the fullest extent permitted by law, Bible Society shall not be liable to the Partner Church for any costs, expenses, loss or damage (whether direct, indirect or consequential and whether economic or other) arising from the Partner Church's delivery of the Navigating Trauma programme or the performance of its obligations and rights under this agreement
- 3.2. Save in respect of claims for death or personal injury arising from Bible Society's direct negligence, in no event will Bible Society be liable for any damages resulting from loss of data or use, lost profits, loss of anticipated savings, nor for any damages that are an indirect or secondary consequence of any act or omission of Bible Society whether such damages were reasonably foreseeable or actually foreseen
- 3.3. Except as provided above in the case of personal injury or death, Bible Society's maximum liability to the Partner Church under this agreement or otherwise for any cause whatsoever will be for direct costs and damages only and will be limited to the value of monies or materials actually paid to the Partner Church under this agreement

3.4. The provisions of clauses 3.1 to 3.3 shall apply to the fullest extent permissible at law, but Bible Society does not exclude liability for:

- 3.4.1. death or personal injury caused by the negligence of Bible Society, its officers, employees, contractors or agents;
- 3.4.2. fraud or fraudulent misrepresentation; and
- 3.4.3. any other liability which may not be excluded by law

3.5. All other conditions, warranties or other terms which might have effect between the parties or be implied or incorporated into this agreement or any collateral contract, whether by statute, common law or otherwise, are hereby excluded, including the implied conditions, warranties or other terms as to satisfactory quality, fitness for purpose or the use of reasonable skill and care

3.6. This agreement represents the entire understanding of the parties on the subject matter herein and shall supersede and override any other agreements, understandings, deals, communications or similar, whether written or oral

3.7. Bible Society may withdraw support, or require the Partner Church to return all or part of any funding or materials, should there be any breach of this agreement
