

5 Christmas poems
From miss KAREN TIMNEY

① Tradition is something we should not follow, For the gifts of this world are truly hollow,

and all the gifts
we give on this earth, will never compare with the Lord's true words. Colossians 2:8

② Christ came at Christmas to take away our sins, to let us taste of righteousness and enter into heaven,

Christ is true joy for us and takes away our worldly lusts, if we desire to seek for Him and if we make faith when days are dim.

③ Now if Christmas is Jesus's Birthday It's all for Him, not us, So give Him what He longs for and not what we would lust, By giving what He's asked for and not as others do, Then He will be best Gift for us and seriously see us through !!

④ The greatest Gift ever given was Jesus on the cross, Who was crucified at Calvary for our sins' sake,

THIS is a different gift in reverse one that grows better not worse, if we are patient and trust in Him surely this gift will not grow dim.

⑤ If you truly seek to give a gift to me, that is what I'd love to see, if you give a gift
to those in need, that would truly be a gift indeed, and as we truly do believe it is the poor who should receive So let's now truly start to see all gifts to the poor, not me!!

MISS Karen Timney,
20 Malloy Park,
Eglinton,
10. Lowermeadow,
N. Ireland
BT47 3XJ

Tel - 07842540427